FOR INAUGURATION

THE EXTENSIVE PREPARATIONS BEING MADE AT WASHINGTON.

Windows and Other Places to View the Great Parade Selling at a Premium-The Usual Overcrowding of Boarders and Lodgers-Hundsome Hotel Room Fitted Up for the President-Elect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26. - Alexander T. Brit ton, the Master of Ceremonies selected by the Republican National Committee, and a dozen committees appointed by him, are very busy in their elaborate preparations for Monday's inauguration celebration.

The city is also preparing for the festival en its own hook, in go-as-you-please style. and not the least considerable feature is the abundance of stands and platforms erected all along the line of march by citizens whose anthusiasm and thrift run apace.

Seats on these places of vantage are already sold in surprising numbers at from 50 cents to $5, while whole windows are sold like boxes at the opera, ruling prices being from $10 to $20, according to size, location and height from the ground. Indeed, $100 has been paid for some windows commanding an extra good view of the parading ground.

There is a Public Comfort Committee of citizens, and the members claim that they will be able to accommodate all who come to the City of Magnificent Distances at from $2.50 to $6 a day for board and lodgings. But there is already a wail going up from the throngs arriving on every train that they can't get decent quarters short of most extortionate get decent quarters made of the great parade, prices.

The Grand Marshal of the great parade, Gen. Beaver, of Pennsylvania, says there will be no less than 50,000 men in the parade, and they will extend over fully eight miles of the beautiful avenues of the city.

Maps of the route of the procession will be prepared for distribution, and the preliminaries of the parade are being made with willitary accuracy.

military accuracy.

When the gun is fired at the east side of the on the gun is fred at the east side of the Capitol, announcing that President Harrison has taken the oath of office. Gen. Hastings, Adjutant-Geheral of the Pennsylvania National Guard, and a detail of men will escort him across to the White House, and the great parade will move.

Col. Ellipti F. Shepard and family arrived yesterday and are quartered at the Arlington Hotel.

Tife venerable Hannibal Hamlin, Lincoln's

Hotel.

The venerable Hannibal Hamlin, Lincoln's first Vice-President, and his wife, will arrive in the city this evening from Chicago, Mr. Hanlin is quoted as saying that this will probably be the last inauguration that he will ever see.

One of the quaint figures on the street is that of ex-Gov. A. B. Norton, of Dallas, Tex., who wears a gray beard a foot long and hair half way down his back. In 1844 Norton made a vow that he would never shave nor cut his hair till Harry Clay was President. He has kept his vow, though Clay has mingled with the dust for more than a generation. Gov. Norton is accompanied by his son, W. H. Norton, of Springfield, Ill.

Host Roessle, of the Arlington, has prepared a remarkably beautiful suit of four rooms for the President and wife on the second floor of the main building. There are a parlor, dining-room, bedroom and smoking-parlor, dining-room, bedroom and smoking parior, dining-room, bedroom and smokingroom.

Plush and rich lace drapings in warm colors give the parlor a comfortable, homelike air. A piano in one corner and pretty chairs and tables make up its furnishings.

The smoking-room is just large enough for three, and leather arm-chairs enough for that number of smokers are there.

The dining-room is furnished in oak, and the bedroom pieces are of mahorany.

The dining-room is furnished in oak, and the bedroom pieces are of mahogany.

Gen. Harrison will be inaugurated to music by the Marine Band, which will play the "Inaugural Grand March." composed by Miss Susauna Warfield, of Maryland, and played at the inauguration of William Henry Harrison in 1841. Miss Warfield is now ninety-five years old, but she will attend the inauguration.

To merrow, from 4 to 7 o'clock, Mrs.

To-merrow, from 4 to 7 o'clock, Mrs. Bourke, wife of Capt. John G. Bourke, of the Army, will give a high tea to Mrs. Russell B. Harrison, and the wife of the President-elect will also attend.

Workmen are transforming the court in the Pension Building into the prettiest and grandest ballroom in America, and here the Inaugural Ball will take place Monday night.

LOCAL PREPARATIONS.

Arrangements of New York and Breeklyn Men for the Day in Washington. The Seventh Assembly District Republicans are outdoing themselves in preparations for their visit to Washington. The Lincoln Club will start for Washington Saturday. There will be 200 men and the Sixty-ninth Regiment Band, with Senator Van Cott as Colonel. He will have five aides and the party will quarter at Willard's. They will serenade will quarter at Willard's. They will serenade Levi P. Morton, and have been assigned a good position in the line of march.

The Kings County Republicans have about concluded their arrangements for the trip to Washington. The Brooklyn men will be headed by the General Committee of 150 in the great parade, with President Franklin Woodruff, ex. President David A. Baldwin and Supervisor Theodore B. Willis in the front row. The men will wear new silk hats and big white silk badges, and will carry umbrethas. Next will come the Williams and Benjamin batteries of Williamsburg, and then the M. J. Dady Legion of solid/business men, in light spring overcoats, tall silk hats and gold badges, and each carrying a silk umbrella. There is some kicking, though, because the John Y. McKane Club, of Coney Island, the organization which kicked out of Democratic traces last Fall, has been given the post of honor in preference to old and tried of honor in preference to old and tried Republican organizations.

There will be 800 of the Kings County men and they will leave for the capital, hit and miss, on Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

The New York State civic division of the parade, it is estimated, will number 7,000 men.

parade, it is estimated, will number 7,000 men.

The John J. O'Brien Association, of the Eighth District, will leave for the Potomac on Sunday afternoon with Gilmore's band, but the police authorities will not let them parade to the ferry.

As every available horse at or about Washington has already been engaged, those New Yorkers whose official rank in the great parade obliges them to ride on horseback must take their chargers with them. Gen. Louis Fitzgerald will send a car-load of equines for himself and staff on Saturday afternoon.

Gen. Barnum, Grand Marshal of the New York State Section, will have a staff of eighty York State Section, will have a staff of eighty members—twice as many as Gen. Beaver

A Tribute from Squash Hollow.

Mr. Timothy Clover-Thar's whar you see ginooine New York charity, Sally. Jist look at them two howlin' swells takin' that little puck ered-up old man out for an airin'!

A Daughter of the Vanderbilts. Daniel B. Allen and daughter of the late Corne lius Vanderbilt, will be buried at Woodlawn or lius Vanderbilt, will be buried at Woodlawn on Thursday morning.

Mrs. Allen was approaching her seventy-second birthday, which would occur on March 8, when she was attacked by pneumonia, the disease which caused her death yesterday at her home, 632 Fifth avenue. She was of a sunny and attractive disposition and made many friends in the course of her long life. She leaves her husband and four children, Franklin Allen, of Brookivn; Col. Vanderbilt Allen, Harry Allen and Mrs. John Wallace. Her funeral services will be conducted by Rev. D. Parker Morgan, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest.

At the annual reception of the Wine, Beer an Liquor Dealers' Association, at Madison Square Garden, March 4, the grand march will be led by Daniel Holland George Hillen and Morris Tetnisky. Bayne's Sixty-ninth Regiment Band will furnish the promenade music and an or-chestra of 100 pieces will play for the dancing. The Garden decorations will be of extraordinary brilliancy. orilliancy.

The Ancient Order of Cranks, of Kingsbridge, will have their annual dinner on Wednesday evening, Feb. 27, at Clarke's Hotel. Annual Ball of the Adelphi Hall Employees, of Thursday evening, Feb. 28.

Entertainment and reception of St. Joseph's Union of Deaf Mutes, for the benefit of the Peet Brat Fund, in the Brooklyn Labor Lyceum. 61-67 Myrtle street, Brooklyn, Monday evening, March 4.

Anniversary and reception under the suspices of Perfection Lodge No. 270, K. of P., at Nilsson Hall. Thursday evening, March 14. Entertainment of the Burnt Cork Minstrels, under the auspices of the Alpha Athletic Club, Harlem Turn Hall, 211 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, this evening.

Annual reception of the Kickapoo Club, Lyric Hall, Friday evening, March 1.

YES, HE MEANS SCHAEFER.

BILLIARDIST SLOSSON TALKING AGAIN OF HIS SWEEPING CHALLENGE.

He Says There Is No Championship in Thi Country Now-Elation in the Amateur Athletic Union Over the Action of the Intercollegiate Association - Sporting

In reply to Jake Schnefer's statement re garding George Slosson's challenge, printed yesterday, Mr. Slosson said last evening: Although my challenge is open to any billiardist, I prefer to play with Schaefer than any one else. Schnefer has talked so much about playing me that his statement is altogether out of place. In the first place, there is no champion in this country; for to have an acknowledged champion there must be an emblem representing the championship, and the holder must stand ready to defend it. Shacfer, therefore, has no right to claim the privilege of naming the place at which the match is to be played. As for playing long games, he has only played three long matches and all his greatest victories have been won and all his greatest victories have been won at short games. In a short game a man must show better judgment and more nerve than in a long one, and it is even on both sides. Schaefer has repeatedly offered to come East to play for $1,000 a side, so I named this amount in my challenge. He has beaten me more games at balk-line billiards than I have beaten him, and in the cushion carrom game the case has been the reverse; so I offered to play two matches, one at balk-line and the other at cushion carroms. I am willing to play his game if he will play mine, and I think I can defeat him at both. As for the choice of table, he has used the Brunswick-Balke-Collender table for the past sixteen years and is playing on it now, the Brunswick-Balke-Collender table for the past sixteen years and is playing on it now, at seems strange that he should desire any other table now, when his salary from the Brunswick-Balke Company has stopped. He would no doubt be the favorite at the balk-line game, while betting would be even at cushion carroms. He has offered me odds and I am willing to play him even. What more can he want?"

The international horseshoe turning contest between David Meredith, champion of England, and James Donelan, of this city, champion of America, will be decided at Madison Square Garden this evening. The match was arranged a month ago, and the conditions are that each man shall turn 100 horseshoes for $500 a side, the man finishing the task first to be declared the winner. The men will work at separate forges and each the task first to be declared the winner. The men will work at a separate forges and each will have five assistants. This will be the first exhibition of this kind in this city, and will be a novel sight. Meredith has the world's record now, having turned 100 shoes in ninety-six minutes; but it is thought this record will be beaten. Prior to this match will be a five-mile race between Tom Delaney and J. McCarthy, two-mile race open to messenger boys, a letter-carriers' race of two miles, a mile race open to members of the Horseshoers' Union, and a fat men's race.

New that the Intercollegiate Athletic Asso New that the Intercollegiate Athletic Asso-ciation has withdrawn from the National As-sociation of Amateur Athletes of America, the Amateur Athletic Union will no doubt take a friendly stand towards it, and further trouble between the Union and the colleges will be avoided. J. E. Sullivan, one of the Execu-tive Committee of the Union, said yesterday: "The action of the Intercollegiate Associa-tion in my mind settles the future of the "The action of the Intercollegiate Association, in my mind, settles the future of the athletic war. It will not last much longer. I think the Union will approve of the Intercollegiate Association's laws, and its athletes will no longer be barred from competing in our games. I shall do all I can to have the Union do this. The N. four A's now have only three or four athletic clubs, and the Union does not oppose the individual clubs. It is only the combination of clubs as the N. four A's which the Union will not recognize the individual clubs. four A's which the Union will not recognize." Mr. Sullivan was very jubilant, and looked like a bigger Injun than ever.

The Gentleman's Driving Club is consider ing the question of giving a stake race for pacers at its fall meeting. The subject will be discussed at the next meeting of the Exec-

John Kelly said last evening that he thought Johnny Ward would play with the New Yorks this season notwithstanding what has been said to the contrary. John is considering a proposition made to him by the American Association and he may charge his mind and go umpiring again this year. a pears to be enjoying his visit to this town, although he is keeping very quiet.

The preliminaries to the annual boxing, fencing and wrestling championships of the Amateur Athletic Union will be held in private, March 21. The finals will be held in the Metropelitan Opera-House, March 23.

Johnny Reagan, the middle-weight, will wind up a benefit entertainment with Jimmy Nelson, formerly of this city, in New Lon-don, Conn., this evening. Nelson is the beneficiary.

CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

PALMEN'S.

Coquelin and Mme. Hashing appeared last night at Palmer's Theatre in Victor Hugo's drama 'Rny Blas,' in which Coquelin was Don Cesar de Bazan, and Ame, Hashing, Marie de Neubourg. The former role is interesting, and gives the comedian those opportunities of which he knows so well how to avail himself. Coquelin's exquisite humor was never more anyearent. There are hardly sufficient favorable superlatives in the dictionary to use in speaking of Coquelin. Without a single 'mannerism, he stands alone in the field of comedy. Mme. Hading's performance was consequentians and pleasing as usual. M. Duquesne was Ruy Blas, and Jean Coquelin. Don Saliuste.

STANDARD.

STANDARD. "Esmeralda" was produced at the Standard Theatre last night and a large crowd welcomed back to the city Miss Nelly Farren, Marton, Sylvia Gray, Letty Lud, Fred Leslie, Charles Panby and Fred Storey. The burlesque has already been very extensively discussed in these columns.

olumns. WINDSOR THEATRE. "Partners" was the attraction at the Windsor Theatre last night, with Alexander Salvini as Houty Bergfeldt, Miss Maude Harrison as Clara Bergfeldt, Miss Katherine Rogers as Mrs. Hark-away and C. P. Flockton as the entertaining actor-papa. The play met with a cordial recep-tion.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE. Little Minnie Palmer was the star at the People's Theatre last night, and of course she twinkled in "My Sweetheart." R. A. Roberts made a capital Tony Faust, Paxton Gibbs was Joe Shotwell, and Carrie Reynolds, Miss Fleeter.

Tony Paston's.

There was an excellent entertainment at Tony Pastor's last night. In the first part Billy Birch's new minstrels appeared. Edward G. Begley sang "Her Own Boy Back; "Richard Jones sang "Hannah Jane;" the Garden City Quartet appeared in a medley; Dan Baker was the bones and Dick Jones the tambourine. In the "second edition" of the first part Billy Birch was the bones and Frank Moran the tambourine. Tony Pastor sang, Adams Carey and Howard appeared and the entertainment ended with a comedy by John Hart, called "Dr. Cureall; or, the Coal-Heaver's Revenge." TONY PARTOR'S.

"Astarte," Kellar's new illusion, was at last precented to the yearning public last night at Dockstader's. It proved successful. Little Dot Robinson was lifted into the air by Kellar, and then executed a number of surprising procestes in space. There were no wires visible, and a more convincing illusion could hardly be imagined.

THIRD AVENUE THEATRE. Miss Fanny Louise Buckingham, in "Mazeppa," began a week sengagement at the Third Avenue Theatre last night. She was supported by a good company and he, handsome stud, James Melville can: " no small share of THALIA THEATRE.

N. S. Wood, the clever young actor, brought his "Waife of New York," to the Thalia Theatre last night. There was a crowded house and Mr. Wood's week will probably be as profitable at Mr. Jacobs Bowery Theatre as last week was at the Third Avenue.

Steele Mackaye's stirring play, "Paul Kan-var, was produced at the Grand Opera-House last night. Miss Carrie Turner was Diane de Beaumont and Joseph Haworth an excellent and charming hero. "Paul Kauvar" is still a and charming hero. Pani I wonderfully potent attraction. THEATER COMIQUE.

The Haverly-Clevelant Minstrels began a week's engagement at the Theatre Comique, Harlein, last night and drews large sudience. Their quips and cranks were enthusiastically received.

KOSTER AND BIAL'S. The usual comprehensive programme was of fered at Koster & Bial's last night. The disrespectful perversion known as "McAnthony and spectful perversion known as "McAnthony and Chloe Pottra" was resumed. Ferguson and Mack and Musical Dale did good work.

PROCTOR'S NEW HOUSE. Proctor's new Twenty-third Street Theatre-will not be opened to-night. The "theatre-warming" has been postponed until Saturday evening, when Neil Burgess will then be ready to produce "The County Fair."

Brooklyn Theatres.

Breeklyn Theatres.

William Gillette's war drams "Held by the Enemy" was the attraction at Col. Rinn's Park Theatre last evening and appreciated by a good-sized audience. The cast was a good one. William Harcourt as Col. Prescott sustained what might be called the principal part with much dramatic force, and at once won favor with the audiences. The rôle of the correspondent was well played by Mr. Will Wilson. Louise Dillon's well remembered portrayal of the rôle of Susan was vividly called to mind by the performance of Miss Minnie Dupree in the same part.

John L. Suilivan took a walk up to High Bridge yesterday morning with Jack Barnitt to exercise the muscles of his legs. He apthe Grand Opera-House last night. Miss

| Part. | Miss Maggie Mitchell, supported by a strong complaints yield to the grand of the Grand Opera-House last night. Miss
| Part. | Miss Maggie Mitchell, supported by a strong complaints yield to the grand opera-House last night. Miss | Part. | The saver does of the same improved by it.

Mitchell as a wild mountain rose in the title rôle was as vivacious as ever, and in a love scene of the second act, under an umbrella caused an uproar of laughter. Charles Abbott, in the rôle of a convict, assisted to escape by Ray, proved himself a clever actor. B. F. McClannin, the lazy blacksmith who wanted to benefit the workingman, contributed a good share of the mirti. George W. Deco was a schemer from away back. Miss Clifton played the part of a mill-owner with great dignity. The house was more than well filled.

with great dignity. The house was more than well filled.

Exclamations of astonishment and frequent bursts of laughter punctuated the mystifying entertainment given by Herrmann at the Lee Avenue Academy of Music last evening. The Professor was assisted by his clever wife and the wonderful equilibrist, D'Alvini, who manitulated inanimate objects so defly as to cause them to be seemingly endowed with life. The "Cremation" was toroused with all its startling really, while the deft manipulation of cards, hats and handkerchiefs combined to make up an evening of widely diversified entertainment.

The return of the Casino Comic Opera com-make up an evening of widely diversified entertainment.

The return of the Casino Comic Opera company to the Brooklyn Academy of Music next week will be notable owing to the fact that the two most prominent successes of Mr. Aronson's company will be given, with almost the original cast. 'Ermine' will be sung the first half of the wrek and 'Nadjy' will finish the engagement. This will probably be the last opportunity of seeing the company together in Brooklyn, as a number of the principals will go with Mr. Francis Wilson as members of his opera company. The sale of seats will begin to-morrow morning at the Academy box office.

Pretty girls and catchy music reigned supreme at the Brooklyn Theatre last night. 'Zo-Zo, the Magic Queen' was the production given, and it is nectices to add that the large audicuce was pleased, as numprons bursts of applianse from the rise to the fall of the curtain testified. The piece was presented in a first-class manner special scenery had been painted by Henry E. Hoyt. There were many pretty marches, and the transformation scene in the last act was a revelation.

The patrons of Proctor's Brooklyn Theatry witnessed last evening one of the best play that has been produced at that house this season, when McKee Bankin and company presented "The Runaway Wife." Mr. Rankin performance was of his usual excellence, and how was cleverly supported by Musers, Maeder, Aller and Russell, Miss Kathleen Roland and Miss Hillian Haye. Judging from the large authence of the first night, the week will be a profitable one.

The craze for roller-skating has struck Brooklyn again with renewed energy, as the large crowds that congregate nightly at the Har Roller Toboggan Slide, on Fifth avenue, between Union and President streets, clearly show. In addition to an excellent skating surface an opportunity is given to enjoy all the exhilarsting sensations of a toboggan slide without the attendant cold and snow. The length of the slide is 1,300 feet. The toboggans are furnished with a set of rollers and attain a wonderful speed while making the long slide. The Union Military Band furnishes excellent music during the evenings and Saturday afternoons.

afternoons.

The Amphion Academy during the current week will be given up to local entertainments. This is in keeping with a clause in the contract of Managers Knowles & Morris by which several weeks during the season were to be devoted to local entertainments. Next week's attraction will be the Thatcher, Frimrose & West minstrel organization, truthfully called the "pioneers of modern minstrelsy," who will present the full strength of their organization.

Messers Holmes of Holmes's Standard Munders of Modern Minstrel organization.

strength of their organization.

Manager Holmes, of Holmes's Standard Museum, presented a novelty yesterday afternoon and evening in Go-Won-Go-Mohawk, an Indian actress of considerable ability. The young lady rides gracefully, is an expert with the rifle and presents a picturesque appearame. She was seen in a drama of the Wild West, entitled "The Indian Mail Carrier," which has the usual complement of red fire, pistel shots and beavy villains. In the Museum they have the twelve-foot dory in which Clarence Hinman made a trip to Boaton on exhibition, together with its navigator.

The particular feature at Zime's Casino this exhibition, together with its navigator.

The particular feature at Zipu's Casino this week is the Venetian Troubadour Septet, who, attired in the costume of their country, produce excellent music from guitars and mandolins. A clever musical team is there in Jack Binns and Jessie Burns, who play on no less then twelve musical instruments in a very clever manner. The Criterion Quartet have been retained. The balladists are Fannic Sanford and Minnie Schult.

Ball of the Purim Association. On Thursday evening, at the Metropolita Opera-House, will occur the annual ball of the Purim Association. The decorations will be superb, the company large and the whole affair a tremendous social success. The entire pro-ceeds will be devoted to the Mount Sinai Hos-pital.

"The Best Laid Plans of Mice and Men Gang aft aglee." Not so HORTETTER'S STOMACH BIT TRUE. It goes right to the spot it is designed to bene ficially affect, and there is no tardiness in its action But while it relieves constipation in common with dra pepsia and liver complaint-associate evils-the griping and abdominal disturbance produced by drastic purgatives never precede its operation. Its thoroughness is unmarred by violence, the chief characteristic of mest lazalives, and one that is highly prejudicial to both bowels and stomach. It is only by invigorating the inits regularity can be perpetuated. To weaken by drench-ing is to insure its relapse into disorder. This the BIT TERS never does. Chills and fever, nervousness, kidney complaints yield to the BITTERS, and appetite and sleep AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S 23D ST. THEATRE. 23D ST., NEAR STH AVE. POSTPONED.

in consequence of the incompletion of the elaborate de NEIL BURGESS'S

Grand Production of

THE COUNTY FAIR. SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 2. Sate of seats at principal hotels and theatre Wednerday morning.
PRICENS 25c., 25c., 50c., 75c., $1, $1,50.
This theatre has been constructed solely of tron and brick, and ander the laws and supervision of the Building and Fire Departments, and is absolutely fire-proof and safe.

PALMER'S THEATRE FAREWELL WEEK
PAREWELL APPEARANCES O'M COQUELIN of the Comode Francaise: Maye. JANE HADING, o PALMERS THEATRE FAREWELL WEEK FAREWELL APPEARANCEN OF M COQUELIN, of the Computer Francisies: Mine JANE HADUNG, of the Grindam, and cominsing of Leventh dramatic articles the Grindam, and cominsing of Leventh dramatic articles (ERAU Trieslay, Jes Surprises du Divorce; Weidnesday matines, benefit of M. Durand, Gringoire, Jean Maris, Lee Preciouse Ridicules and Monologues; Wednesday exenting, Fron Frou; Thursday, Le Gendre de M. Polifer; Friday matines, benefit of Mine, Hadurg, Camille, Saturday, farewell Coquelio-Hadding matines, Denise; Saturday evening, Leventuriers.

EDEN MUSEE. MAX GROUPS, THE RUSSIANS. AFTERNOONS, AFTERNOONS, AFTERNOONS, AND EVENINGS, ERDELY! NACZUS HUNGARIAN ORCHESTRA. AJEEB, the Mystifring Ches Automation.

WED. FEB. 27. ONE KEEK ORCHID SHOW.

Full bottom agram with laughter and delight.

Next week, Heye's councily drama,
A MIDGHT BELLA.

Gallery, 25c. Beserved, 5dc., 7dc., 1.00, 11.80 14TH STREET THEATRE, COR. 6TH AVE.

BUOUTHEATRE BROADWAY STURDAY

Last week of the famous LE VOYACE EN SUISSE Next Week Katherine C and James A. Herne

SPARKLING COTERIE.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL BALL.
METROPOLITAN OPERA-HOUSE,
TUESDAY EVENING, FEB, 26, 1889.
bozes remaining unsold may be had by apply M. CURLEY, 1553 Broadway.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

GREETVING SEATS—Orchestra Circle and Balcony—50a.

WED. PAUL KAUVAR. MAT.

MAT. Nest Wed. ROBERT MANTELL.

Nest Sunday, SAN YRANGISCO and the FAR WEST, by PROF. CROMWELL.

STANDARD THEATRE. LONDON GAILTY ATTULESOUR CO. Introducing NELLIE PARREN, VARD LESLIE, Kneoulators, don't invest in tickets.

MADISON SQUARE THEATRE.

Mr. A. M. PALMER

4TH CAPTAIN SWIFT.

MONTH A Great Success. World, Jan. 28. Penmen."

WINDSOR THEATRE.

Week commencing Monday, Feb. 23.

Mr. A. M. PALMER'S

Madison Square Theatre Company in

Mednesday and Saturday and Saturday, MADISON SQUARE THEATRE.

LUDWIG Sacred Songs. Irish Ballads. CONCERT. Steinway Hall, SUNDAY, March 3. NIBLO'S Orchestra Circle A Baic's, 50' RIBALEY'S WATER OUTERN Last Five Nights. Last Fow Mats. To-Morrow Lives. Next Week-MAUDE GRANGER-TWO LIVES.

TONY PASTOR'S THEATRE. BILLY BURCH'S NEW MINSTRELS, MATINEE TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

ACADEMY AND THE AD BROADWAY THEATRE Mat Wed and Sat 2 P.M. Manager Broadway, cor. 41st st Mr. FRANK W. SANGKE LATTLE LORD SOUVENIR PERFORMANCE TO MOROW. A MBURG THEATRE. Trying place and 15th st.
the Great Success, O. MOTERULE VIEW.

VISITED BY 492,000 IN ONE YEAR.
GETTYSBURG.
19th st. & 4th ave. Sunday, 25 cer

Uncle Prudent was almost suffocating with anger, and raved liked a frantic man. Fear-until he cooled off.

AMUSEMENTS. WORTH'S PALACE MUSEUM, 14TR ST. THE GUATEVALAR WISTON THE WARE THE GUATEVALAR WISTON TO STATE THE WAR THE TO STATE THE WARE TO STATE THE WAR T

SOUVENIR DAY TURBDAY, F-6 28 1.00048 EASIERS OF A PARTY OF A HANDSOME PRESERVE FOR A VERY BODY GRAND FAIR IN GERMANTE HOLDING.
AT AMERICAN INSTITUTE HOLDING.
634 N. 194 Add constacting cuts
Commencing MONDAY, 48, 18, 4d constacting cuts
Evenings, from 8 to 10.30. Afternoons, from 3 to 5.
Season Tokets, 41 Congral Admission, 25 cm.
Children Admission only 10 Cents.

THEATRE COMIQUE 125th a, bet 34 & Les. 1980.
HAVERLY CLEVELARD
American European Mastedon Minetenia,
Exira Matinee Wednesday, Matinee Saturday,
Next Week-MRS, LANGTRY in her repertors.

FERNANDO'S DANGING ACADEMY AND AND THE ST. RECEPTION EVERY TURBLY AVENTS SROADWAY AND SOTE ON CASINO.

EVENINGS AT SUDDAY AT S.

Admission (a) dela reserved 2 weeks in advence.

MINER'S PEOPLE'S THEATRE.

MINNIE PALMER

ONLY SIATURE SATURDAY. CASINO.

H. R. JACOBR'S (THALIA)
OLD ROWERY THEATER
Mon., Wed, A Sas. WOOD. OF NEW YORK.
March 4-Florence Bindley in Dat.

H. R. JACOBS'S 3D AVE. THEATER
BUCKINGHAM. | MAZEPPA.

BUCKINGHAM. | MAZEPPA.

March 4—The White Slave.

STAR THEATER.

STAR THEATER. STAR THEATRE. COMIC OFFICE AND THE NEW COMIC OFFICE AND PARTY.
MAID PARIA. Agreement Comic Office And Parish Agreement Comic Agreement Comic Office And Parish Agreement Comic Office Agreement Comic Office And Parish Agreement Comic Office And Parish Agreement Comic Office Agreement Comic Office

KOSTER BIAL'S. CHLOE POTTRA DOCESTADERS OF A LA.
THE WONDERFULL KELLAR
"ASTARTE," OF WALL OF THE

BROOKLYN AMUSERENTS.

BROOKLYN ACADEMY OF MUSIC. WEEK COMMENCING MONDAY, MARCH 4. NEW YORK CASINO OPERA CO.

ERMINIE. NADJY.

The cast includes Pouline Hall, Marie Janese, Atm O'Korle, Jenuie Weathershy, Research Maries Georgie Dennin, Francia Wilson, Charles Paulines, Ma Freeman, George Olmi, Harry MacDonough, ea. CHORUS O'F 80. OKULENTRA, OF 28. Sale of Scales commences Fob. 27, at Accessay. H. COR WASHINGTON AND JOHNSON STANDAMENT OF THE ACT OF

OO ARTISTS O 80 ARTISTS OF POPULAR PRICES Reserved 8-845, 30c., 10c., and 50c., question of the cast week PECK'S HAD BOY. STAR ROLLER TOBOGGAN SLIDE

5th ave., between Union and President sta. Greatest amusement in Brooklyn. Open every even-ing and fiaturday afternoon. Admission, gonte 250., ladies and children 100., to: Admission, ponts 25c., ladge cluding two slides. COL. SINN'S PARK THEATRE.

by the ENEMY. GRAND OPERA-HOUSE Knowled & Morelle & Morelle & Morelle & Morelle & Management & Ma

MAGGIE MITCHELL PROCTOR'S THEATRE. | NO VARIETY. Mr. MCKEE RANKIN, IN

"Go Won Go Mohawk," Accepted ZIPP'S CASING A GERHARDT ... P.

tet, Criterion Quartet, Jack Bit Fannie Sanford and Minnie Schult LEE AVENUE ACADEMY OF MUSIC HERMANN'S Cromation and made of nor MANN'S Cromation and made of nor Mart week - HAVERLEY & MINEY around them. The squall broke sudden closed around the " Albatross."

The "Albatross" was running at its usua height, about three thousand feet, when a deafening elap of thunder rolled immediately

Phil Evans started to intercede in behalf of Phil Evans started to intercede in summer of Frycollin and to beg that he might be drawn on board. But Robur had anticipated the request and the rope was already being healed. In the mean time the weather during the past hour had undergone considerable modiin, when all at once there was an inexpl slackening in the rotation of the sum

"Put on more speed," he cried to the engineer; " we must rise out of the storm of

"Impossible, captain," " Why ?"

"The current has broken."

The "Albatross" was sinking slowly.

The "Albatross was surrent of telegraph lines during storms, the supply of ele was decreasing in the accumulators of the air-Frycollin? Well, Frycollin was still in tow- ship. In telegraph matters this means only meant that the air-ship would be cast helpless into the sea.

cook'

THE CONQUEST OF THE AIR.

A Record of the Wonderful Cruise of the "Albatross."

By JULES VERNE, Author of "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." "A Trip to the Moon," "Around the World in Eighty Days," &c. A PERSONALLY AUTHORIZED PUBLICATION.

PARIS, Feb. 8, 1889.—I have just obtained written authority from Jules Verne and his publisher for the publication of "The Conquest of the Air" in THE EVENING WORLD. This Extraordinary story should rank as Verne's masterplece.

PARIS CORRESPONDENT EVENING WORLD. Profusely lilustrated by "Evening World" Artists.

SYNOPSIS OF CHAPTERS I-XIII. er, announcing himself as Robur, tries to convince the members of the Weldon Club that their theories gation by means of balloons are abourd. He is compelled to fly to avoid the members' indignation, and captures Uncle Prudent, the Precident of the Club, Phil Evans, the Secretary, and Frycelin, else, whom he has conveyed on beard the "Albatross," a wonderful flying machine which he has the unwilling guests are treated kindly, but are given no information as to the estent of their rip, be continent to the Pacific coast, thence across the ocean to Japan, the flying machine causing great herever seen. Leaving Japan behind them they cross the Himslayas into India, where, at the late of the lake in order to obtain a supply of water. The captiles from a water, but are prevented. Four days later they see beneath them the city of Ashourada, on the Caspian Bes.

CHAPTER XIV. AN ABRIAL PISHING EXCURSION AND A GREAT DANGER THAT THE "ALBATROSS" ENCOUNTERED.

chatting with the cook, Francois Tapage, and does." in reply to a question had remarked: "Yes, us free from this ' Albatross. '" we shall stop over the Caspian Fea about forty-eight hours." "Good," replied the cook. "We shall have an opportunity to fish." This conversation was overheard by Phil this machine constitutes for us and others a been standing behind them and who would stroying it"probably have gained further information had not Frycollin broken in with his customary morning litany of fright. Finding that the other afterward." othing further was to be learned Phil Evans hurried to Uncle Prudent's cabin and acquainted him with George Kerns's words.

During the morning George Kerns had been | us at liberty when it suits him-if he ever "Consequently our own efforts must set

> "Which we must admit is a manous machine." "Possibly so," returned Uncle Prudent, "but it is the machine of a scoundrel, who holds us here against our right, and therefore Evens, who, without their knowledge, had permanent danger. If we can end by de-"Let us commence by saving ourselves," responded Phil Evans. "We shall see to

"So be it," replied Uncle Prudent, "and now let us profit by the present occasion. After leaving the Caspian the 'Albatross' will "Phil Evans." said Uncle Prudent, "we probably head over Europe, possibly to the should no longer deceive ourselves as to the north over Russia or to the west over Austria. If we can ascape then, our safety is assured.

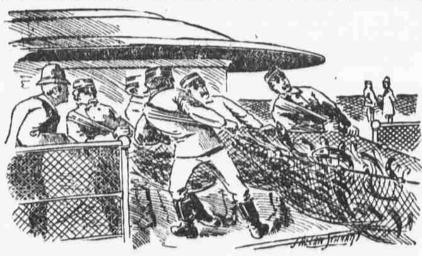

A sense of their helplessness, the ironical pike were poured on the deck in hundreds. the method which has quieted the valet may "But how can we reach the ground?" dedisdain with which Robur treated them, his An hour's work sufficed to fill the larder, and also teach a lesson to the master." manded Phil Evans. "Listen to me. There are times during brutal manner of answering their questions, the air-ship resumed its course to the north. the night when the 'Albatross' flies at a few all tended to aggravate their situation, which hundred feet above the earth. There are sevday by day became more unbearable. eral ropes on board of that length, and with a little courage we might slide down." "Yes," responded Phil Evans, "it may be if one of these ropes is concealed in the bow trembling body into a thousand shapes.

uncoil it at night, unseen and unheard." "Nothing cosier," said Phil Evans, "I see with pleasure. Uncle Prudent, that you made no efforts to calm bim. On the con-led to a regrettable altercation between an unsupportable hubbub. Robur and the two colleagues. Frycollin, as done, and for my part I do not hesitate to at- usual, was the cause of the dispute. Finding himself over a vast sea, out of sight of land "Nor I," said Uncle Prudent. "I have on all sides, the poltroon had a fresh attack noticed that during the night no one is on of tright. Like the coward that he was, he watch except the steersman at the stern. Now, began to moan, protest, cry and to twist his during the day it would not be impossible to want to get off-let me down," he cried. "I am not a bird; let me down; let me down." It is unnecessary to say that Uncle Prudent are ca'm, and that is a strong point in our | tracy, he seemed to enjoy the scene, probably profit by the occasion to" ---

THE NETS WERE FILLED WITH FISH.

Uncle Prudent. "But that does not say that our movements are also followed during the night,"

" During the night, then, we will carry out its master." The two colleagues, Uncle Prudent in particular, were growing desperate and ready to said Phil Evans.

favor. But here we are, over the Caspian | thinking that the yells and screams would Sea, and a number of vessels in sight. The annoy Robur. George Kerns and his com-'Albatross' will descend to fish. Shall we panions were ready for their fishing operations, and to rid himself of Frycollin Robur "To be seized again, as we were a short ordered one of the crew to lock the nuisance time ago? They must undoubtedly be watch- up in his cabin. But the negro continued ing our movements even now," responded his clamor, kicking at the door and howling louder than ever, "Attention!" cried George Kerns, who had just harpooned a large fish which looked like a young shark. It was a magnificent sturgeon, seven test long, of the litissian species, our plans and finish with this 'Albatross' and the eyes of which, mixed with salt, vinegar and white wine, are made into caviare. The balance of the crew turned their attention to drawing in the nets, and François Tapage's

During the halt Frycollin had not ceased from yelling and thumping the door of the ing the consequences, Phil Evans carried and in a few seconds the clouds of fire had That very day a new scene occurred that cabin in which he was confined, keeping up him bodily into the cabin and held him there "Will that unhappy negro ever stop?" said Robur finally, out of patience. "It seems to me, sir, that he has a right to complain." said Phil Evans. "Yes, and I also have the right to rid my

> "Capt. Robur!" said Uncle Prudent, just appearing on deck. 'President of the Weldon Club!" The two men advanced until but a few paces apart and looked straight into each other's eves.

For a minute Robur returned Uncle Pruears of this nuisance," replied Robur.

dent's gaze, then, shrugging his shoulders, ' Bring a rope." George Kerns comprehended, and Prycollin was dragged from the cabin. His cries of terror were redoubled as the foreman and one of his comrades seized him and bound him in a sort of basket, to which they firmly tied the end of a rope. It was one of the same ropes that Uncle Prudent hoped to make use of. The negro was afraid he was about to be hanged, whereas he was only to be suspended. The cable was let out to a distance of one hundred feet, and Frycollin found himself balanced in space. He could ery at will now. But fright had paralyzed his larynx and he was dumb. Uncle Pru-

proceedings, but they were repulsed. "It is infamous, it is cowardly," cried Uncle Prudent, white with rage. "That is a matter of opinion," retorted dent and Phil Evans attempted to oppose the protest." " Protest " "And for which I shall be revenged." " As you please."

" Both on you and yours."

The crew of the "Albatross" had approached, awaiting a sign from their master, but Robur motioned them back.

"I am at your service," answered Robur. "You shall be forced to regret your cowardice and rescality." "Enough " said Robur, in a menacing

HOW FRYCOLLIN WAS PUNISHED.

fication, and a storm was brewing. The atmosphere was charged with electricity to such a degree that at half past two Robur witnessed a phenomenon that he had never " It is an abuse of power against which I observed before. In the north, from which direction the storm was coming, luminous scrolls of vapor were rising, caused by the passing of the electric current through the different strata of clouds. The reflection of these electric clouds ran along the surface of the sea in myriads of lights, which grew brighter as the heavens darkened. And "Yes, on you and yours," repeated Uncle | and tow is the correct word, for the speed of a delay in transmitting despatches. Here, in Prudent, his colleague vainly endeavoring to the air-ship was throwing the rope into a pro- this case, it was a frightful danger, which nounced angle, and Frycollin and his basket were some yards in the rear.

His fright may be judged when the lightning commenced to furrow through the space around him, while the thunder claps

"Down, down," cried Robur, "and out of this electric zone. Come, my men, hose

"No," replied Phil Evans. "He will set We must get everything ready for the hour," resort to any means to secure their freedom. eyes sparkled as carp, salmon and salt-water tone. "There are more ropes on board, and pealed in the depths of the heavens.

Robur

miet him.